O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve... As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."
Joshua 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, our words and actions should reflect the Gospel message to others.

I made an error in the bulletin last week. My apologies to the Tuchscherer Family. It should have read:

Condolences to the Tuchscherer Family on the passing of Leo Tuchscherer.

HOLY ROSARY CATHEDRAL will host a concert of the organ music of TATE PUMFREY on Friday, September 20th at 7 PM.

Sponsored by the RCCO Regina Centre, three organists will perform, culminating in the world premiere of the Organ Sonata No. 1, based on Gregorian chant from Holy Week, commissioned by Renée de Moissac, and written with this instrument in mind.

Canadian composer Tate Pumfrey (b. 1998) grew up in Thamesville, Ontario and studied at Western University where he received a Bachelor of Arts in Music. In 2022 he completed a Master's Degree in Composition at York University under the supervision of composer Stephanie Martin. His teachers and mentors include Gilles Maurice Leclerc, Jeff Smallman, and the late Rachel Laurin. A strong interest in Catholic sacred music has led to the self-publication of two volumes of 24 original hymns each (in collaboration with Australian poet-organist Christian Catsanos).

REGINA CATHOLIC SCHOOLS DIVISION

Is having their Opening Mass and Faith Day on Wednesday, August 28 at 8:30 am at Resurrection Parish. Everyone is invited to watch the celebration on Resurrection's You Tube Channel at:

<https://www.youtube.com/live/NucpQwFGJYM?si=h-IWQ3c0eSVT2gAX>

Archbishop Donald Bolen will be the presider and homilist.

REGINA CATHOLIC SCHOOLS Students will begin classes on September 3. Please drive carefully and watch for children crossing the street and follow school zone speed limits.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Starting September 8th at the 11:00 am Mass.

REMINDER: Children's liturgy is intended for those children (approx. ages 3-7) who have not yet received their First Communion.

Last year we had 36 kids on average! We only have two leaders and could really use a couple more.

At Children's Liturgy, we are doing what the grown-ups are doing but at a child's level— listening to the Word of God and learning about what it means in our lives.

If you are interested, please contact Miri Schiller at 306-550-7518 or mirijael@hotmail.com or just come to a session to see what it's all about!

August 20, 2024

Dear parishioners and visitors,

We hope your summer is going well. These last lazy days of the season, with the lush colours everywhere one looks (especially the flower beds on the east side of the Cathedral!), give us so much to enjoy and for which to be grateful.

A few events to look forward to at the Cathedral: Save the Dates!

August 24, 7:30 p.m.: The Schola Concert -- sacred choral music in Latin and the vernacular, from the Renaissance onwards, performed by the Booker Family. They provided the beautiful music at Fr. Daniel Malone's Diaconate Ordination service in December. Free-will offering at the door.

September 20, 7:30 p.m.: Organ Concert --- featuring three Saskatchewan organists (from outside Regina). This is another chance for us to show off our magnificent Cassavant pipe organ. Free-will offering at the door.

October 26, 5:00 p.m.: OKTOBERFEST! ---- a much-enjoyed fund-raising evening that brings us together as a community, and for a worthwhile cause. More information later.

Some good news: the new elevator is now functional, as are the washrooms in the vestibule and hall. Check them out on Sunday!

More good news: the refugee family from Syria for whom Bernadette Kutarna and her team have been working to bring to Regina are finally arriving on September 10! There are no words to adequately thank all who donated money or worked at the fund-raising events that made possible the reuniting of the family with their loved ones here.

Our deep gratitude as well to all the volunteers who have been working on the landscaping on the west side of the Cathedral. Their generosity saved our parish thousands of dollars: another instance of the blessings in our community and which we cannot take for granted.

And speaking of the generous spirit that keeps our parish vibrant: the CWL wants to remind you to think of volunteering for the catering service we provide in our parish. We welcome men and women to help us in catering for funerals and archdiocesan events. If we have a long enough list of volunteers, you may not be called on to help more than once or twice a year. NO cooking experience needed--- just willing hands for setting up, chopping "goodies", and washing up. The bonus is the good time we have in kitchen, and the gratitude expressed by the families we serve. For further information, or to sign up, please call the office (306-565-0909), Margaret Molloy (306-352-2908), Shannon Chapple (306-541-9978), or Samy McCarthy (306-584-0613).

And the last bit of news: Fr. Dan will be away from September 17 - October 24, for a much-needed and much-deserved holiday. Though he will be missed, the liturgies and sacramental services in our parish will not be affected, as Fr. Vince from Vancouver will be serving the parish in his place.

Yours sincerely,

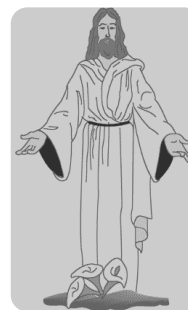

Fr. Dan Rafael
Samy McCarthy

A full schedule of the pilgrimages taking place within the Archdiocese of Regina can be found at archregina.sk.ca/blog/ministry/annual-pilgrimage-sites/

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

Go Make Disciples

Become a leader in your parish and the wider community, by serving the people of God as an evangelizing disciple of Jesus Christ. The Archdiocese of Regina's Lay Formation Program provides you with the skills, tools, and opportunities to deepen your spiritual life and assess your God-given gifts and talents. Join our weekend sessions at Campion College starting this November and become part of a community of leaders serving God's people in a variety of roles. Our three-year program will deepen your understanding of Church and faith through solid teaching by our own diocesan priests and religious as well as lay men and women who are experts in their respective fields of theology, ethics, social justice, and more. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-721-6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca.

Meeting the Risen Jesus a Summer Retreat on Thinking Faith

In another first for the Thinking Faith Catholic Podcast, Deacon Eric Gurash is joined by his wife, Melissa, as they lead you through a series of summer functions based on the fourth week of St. Ignatius of Loyola's Spiritual Exercises. Often referred to as Contemplations on Divine Love, over the next five weeks, they will offer a variety of reflections on Jesus' Resurrection appearances, encountering God in all things, and living a spirit-filled life. thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/
