“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” (Philippians 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God – He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God’s image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

December 1, 2021

Dear fellow-parishioners and visitors,

All of us in the Pastoral and Finance Councils wish you the choicest blessings of the Christmas season!

Despite the continuing uncertainty of the times, we have much for which to be grateful.

We are particularly blessed this year in being able to gather with family and friends, though still aware of the need to be cautious. This year we can come together not only around the dinner table, but also around the altar, to pray together at the liturgies. To accommodate all who want to attend Mass, additional services have been added to the schedule.

Christmas Eve (December 24)	7:00 p.m.	Mass (celebrant: Rev. Scott Lewis, S.J.)
	9:00 p.m.	Mass (celebrant: Rev. Dan Rafael)
	11:00 p.m.	Music Prelude
	Midnight	Mass (Celebrant: Archbishop Jim Weisgerber)
Christmas Day (December 25)	11:00 a.m.	Mass (celebrant: Rev. Dan Rafael)
	7:00 p.m.	Mass (celebrant: Rev. Dan Rafael)
New Year's Day (January 1)	11:00 a.m.	Mass (Celebrant: Archbishop Don Bolen)
	1:00 p.m.	Archbishop's Levee (auditorium: everyone invited)
	7:00 p.m.	Mass (celebrant: Rev. Dan Rafael)

The Prelude music, Christmas Eve (midnight) and January 1st (11:00 a.m.) Masses will be live-streamed.

In keeping with decades of tradition, the Christmas Eve Mass will be preceded by the 11:00 p.m. music prelude; the service promises to be a joyous celebration. The choir will be expanded to @ 30 singers for the occasion (all vaccinated and masked). The music, superbly orchestrated by our music director Evanne Wilhelm, will be a mixture of the traditional and the contemporary, and there will be ample opportunity for the congregation to join in well-known carols and hymns.

A week before Christmas eve, on December 17, the Filipino Choir will present a Christmas concert, aptly titled "Give Love". It is a fund-raiser to benefit both Holy Rosary Cathedral and the charities supported by ANCOP Regina (ANSWERING the Cry Of the Poor). The performance, to be held in the Cathedral, starts at 7:30 p.m.

The event is a timely reminder. December can be a time of exciting (sometimes frantic) preparation for Christmas, and amidst the glitter and joys of the season we forget that the month is also the season of Advent, a period of anticipation for the coming of the Messiah, who is the Incarnation of love. It is the season for giving to those whom we love; it is also a time to remember most especially those less fortunate, those in our midst who are most in need.

Have a merry, healthy, blessed Christmas!

Synodality – Does my voice matter?

Fundamentally, synodality is about journeying together. Your voice is important to hear and discern what the Holy Spirit is saying to our local Church. More importantly, your participation in listening and discerning the Holy Spirit's action is important for building a culture of synodality in our Archdiocese for the long term.

In the document (called Vademecum) released before a synod to prepare participants, Pope Francis writes that the primary question for this synod is, "How does this "journeying together" take place today on different levels (from the local level to the universal one), allowing the Church to proclaim the Gospel? and what steps is the Spirit inviting us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church? (PD, 2)" (VD 1.3)

Over the next 6 months, the Archdiocese of Regina will be listening to its people to hear, honestly and charitably, about how we listen and journey with one another at the familial, parish, and diocesan level. We will also be listening to discern ways that the Holy Spirit is calling it to grow in a spirit of "journeying together," attentive to the direction of the Holy Spirit speaking through all its members and in the signs of the times.

In some synods, the questions focus on a particular challenge or topic (eg. Youth, Eucharist, New Evangelization) and the work of the synod is primarily done in preparation to or during the assembly of the synod. This synod is different. The diocesan phase will take place over the next 5-6 months, but the most important work remains in continuing and growing a culture of synodality in our local Church. Your participation helps us to continue listening and discerning; to become more fully a people who are "journeying together" in the Holy Spirit.

Journey Through Advent 2021

CCCB Journey Through Advent Table Grace

Creator God, we acknowledge the truth. We have not bothered to learn the whole story about the history of this land. Our Lady of Guadalupe chose to appear as an Indigenous woman to an Indigenous man, Juan Diego, and spoke to him in his Indigenous language. Help us to listen to the concerns of Indigenous peoples and to walk together with them in learning more about you and about the world. We ask Our Lady to help Pope Francis show his love to the Indigenous delegates who are now on their way to Rome. We thank you for our Indigenous brothers and sisters. We thank you for this food. Come, Lord Jesus! Amen.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may a new relationship between the Church of Canada and Indigenous Peoples come to birth in joyful expectancy, in a new way of walking together in solidarity, on the road to reconciliation.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Did you know that...a concentrated effort to establish Indian Residential Schools began between 1883 and 1930, federal government sponsored residential schools grew from 3 to 80 and at their height numbered 139. These schools were operated by Roman Catholic, Anglican, Presbyterian, and United churches. The RC church ran 70% of these schools. The last school remained in operation until the late 1990's. The Truth and Reconciliation Committee estimated that 150,000 Indigenous children attended these schools.
