December 8, 2022

Dear Parishioners and visitors,

Now that the snow is here to stay and the seemingly endless and glorious Autumn is behind us, our thoughts turn to Christmas and all the joy and anticipation, all the hustle and bustle that comes with the season.

As we get mid-way in the season of Advent, we become more aware of the message of the Incarnation, the reason for the celebration of Christmas.

This past year has been a turbulent one, to say the least. The COVID pandemic may be abating, but we have been acutely conscious of the heart-breaking war in Ukraine, the political conflicts and suffering resulting from them elsewhere, the hurricanes, earthquakes, famines, floods and droughts in different parts of the world and on our own shores, and the economic effects of these events. Most of us may be able to cope with these effects and to feel safe where we live, but there are many who are suffering desperately as a result of these global calamities.

In this season of love and generosity, as we plan our family festivities, let us be grateful for the blessings in our lives, and let us also give some thought to those who are less fortunate and help in whichever way we can.

All of us who serve on our Pastoral and Finance Councils wish you and your loved ones the blessings of Christmas, much joy with your families and friends, and good health and peace of mind in 2023.

Please join us at any of the liturgical celebrations in the Cathedral during this special season.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Danilo Rafael

Bulletin

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Synod Listening Session: “Enlarge the space of your tent” (Isaiah 54:2)

You are invited to join the Synod’s Continental Stage on Saturday, January 7 from 10 am to 12:30 pm as we gather to reflect on the “Document for the Continental Stage.” Come give your guidance and advice to the Archdiocese’s delegates who will be part of the North American Listening Sessions in January.

The document poses the following questions which we will explore together:

- which intuitions in the document resonate most strongly with the lived experiences and realities of the Church in North America? Which experiences are new, or illuminating to you?
- what substantial tensions or divergences emerge as particularly important in a North American perspective? Consequently, what are the questions or issues that should be addressed and considered in the next steps of the Synod process?
- what are the priorities, recurring themes and calls to action that can be shared with other local Churches around the world and discussed during the First Session of the Synodal Assembly in October 2023?

Please register in advance at bit.ly/Regina-Synod-Jan-7
Download and read the “Document for the Continental Stage” at bit.ly/Synod-DCS

BULLETIN BOARD

LESSON NINE Live your best life! Live the best truth! Live your Catechism!

Is the Catechism just a list of dogma and doctrine?

No. The Catechism is a complete summary of the history and tradition of Church doctrine. The content is explained by relying strongly on Sacred Scripture; as well as, the Church Fathers, liturgical texts, the writings and lives of saints. The people who heard and saw the words and actions of saints and scholars, tells us of the Church's ongoing, living tradition. Dogma is a part of doctrine declared by the Magisterium (the church's teaching authority) as an infallible truth revealed by God. Doctrine is the full and complete teachings of the church. Dogmas and Doctrines are received from the Apostles, who gave it to bishops and bishops give it to the faithful. In very simple terms, there are 255 dogmas contained in doctrine. See CCC# 88 & 90.
