Grant, we pray, almighty God, that, always pondering spiritual things, we may carry out in both word and deed that which is pleasing to you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..."Matthew 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our hearts, and turns our attention away from "me," and moves it toward God and others. It changes my heart and actions, allowing for a little more empathy for "my enemy." When we pray for others, even our enemies, it may soften their hearts as well.

Share Lent 2023 Development and Peace
CARITAS CANADA

February 22 Ash Wednesday

This Lent, let's pray for the courage to Create Hope for a better world.

February 23 ?

How can we create hope? By caring for our sisters and brothers and taking action to show our solidarity.

February 24 ?

Pope Francis calls members of popular movements "social poets" because they have the courage to create hope.

February 25

To create hope that a world of justice will take root, sow a seed and watch it sprout.

March 5 Second Sunday of Lent

Pray that every person in our human family can live with dignity in a healthy environment.

March 4 1 25 1

Development and Peace stands with its partners as equals. Let's share with them. Support them by giving $2.

March 3 ?

Are there communities in your region that are defending their territories against threats from industries? How can you stand in solidarity with them?

March 2 ?

The territories of several communities like the Mura of Brazil are threatened by mining companies, agribusiness or cattle ranching. Watch their testimonies.

March 1st ?

Stand in solidarity with the people defending their territories against industries that would destroy it to steal its resources.

February 28 ?

What is a territory? It is land where people live with forests, resources and waterways. This space also defines their culture, their way of life and their history.

February 27 1 25 1

Protecting the land is caring for it. Today, wear gloves and pick up the garbage you see on your way. Give $1 for your good deed.

February 26 First Sunday of Lent

Pray that the Holy Spirit guides us in standing for the land and its peoples.

March 6 ?

Colombia is home to nearly 10% of the Earth's biodiversity. It is also unfortunately a very dangerous country for people protecting their territories from mining and hydroelectric projects.

March 7 ?

Raquel Soto, a Colombian peasant woman, is delighted to help preserve traditional ways of life in her territory by making documentaries. Discover her story.

March 8 1 25 1

International Women's Day
In Colombia, peasant women are mobilizing to defend their lands after being driven out by armed conflict. Donate $1 in support of courageous women around the world.

March 9 ?

In Colombia, our partner ACA works with young people to build a culture of peace and respect for biodiversity through art, by creating videos and murals. Create a piece of art to honour peace and biodiversity.

March 10 ?

How do you show your solidarity? Do something to help a neighbour today.

March 11 ?

It's baking time!
Make and sell some muffins to raise funds for Development and Peace! Every donation helps our partners fight injustice. Thank you!

March 18 ?

Donate 50¢ for every electronic device in your home. Be sure to recycle them safely because they contain toxic pollutants.

March 17 ?

In Honduras, our partner ERIC airs public-interest programs that help rural communities learn about and claim their rights. Take your turn to speak out against injustice.

March 16 ?

If your community was threatened by the arrival of a polluting company, how would you defend your rights?

March 15 1 25 1

Give $2 to support Development and Peace's partners like ERIC in Honduras, who help communities defend their rights.

March 14 ?

Working with our Honduran partner ERIC, Elvin Hernández accompanies communities and investigates violations of their rights. Check out his story.

March 13 ?

In Honduras, many people are threatened or prosecuted for resisting the exploitation of their territories by corporations.

March 12 ?

Third Sunday of Lent
Pray for the people who protect their territory and live in harmony with nature.

March 19 Fourth Sunday of Lent

Pray that we are granted the wisdom to sow beauty rather than pollution and destruction.

March 20 ?

What is solidarity? One could think of it as helping one's neighbour in a spirit of unity and acting together for the good of all. Reflect on your own definition.

March 21 ?

Primary school kids have spoken up for the planet! Check out what they said.

March 22 1 25 1

World Water Day
Give 25¢ for every tap you turn on today (whether at home, in school or at work).

March 23 ?

There are great and growing inequalities between the world's richest and poorest people. How could we live in a more just and equal world?

March 24 1 25 1

Last year, Development and Peace supported 86 projects in 40 countries. Donate 10¢ for every country supported.

March 25 ?

Choose locally produced food and goods to reduce your impact on the Earth.

March 26 ?

Solidarity Sunday
Bring your donation jar to church for today's Solidarity Sunday collection or donate online at devp.org/give. THANK YOU!

April 2 Palm Sunday

Let us pray for the courage to create hope and stand in solidarity with those who are enduring unjust situations.

April 1st 1 25 1

For your next birthday, instead of gifts, ask for donations to Development and Peace, in solidarity with our sisters and brothers in the Global South.

March 31 ?

Paint rocks with messages of justice, peace and love to create hope and raise awareness in your neighbourhood.

March 30 ?

Pray that each and every one of us can live in dignity, peace and security.

March 29 ?

What can you do in Canada to help change the structures that generate poverty and injustices in the Global South?

March 28 ?

In Cambodia, our partner YRDP educates and empowers young people to become engaged and responsible citizens who act for justice, peace and democracy.

March 27 ?

Watch the animated
For our Common Home video. Do something to take care of the Earth.

April 3 ?

We are all connected with one another. Act with respect for people, the land and future generations.

April 4 ?

Has the seed you planted grown? With time, love and care, we can all grow, too!

April 5 ?

Hope starts with a smile and a word of encouragement. It grows when we stand in solidarity with our sisters and brothers in the Global South.

April 6 ?

Holy Thursday
Are you a Development and Peace member yet? Join us to help us spread solidarity.

April 7 ?

Good Friday
Creating hope for a better world starts at home! Write or draw messages of hope in chalk in your driveway, on sidewalks or in parks near your home.

April 8 ?

Holy Saturday
Would your family want to Share Year-Round? Monthly giving supports our partners effectively and sustainably.

April 9 ?

Happy Easter!
He is risen! May his rising inspire us to live as Jesus did, in love and solidarity, sharing with our sisters and brothers.

Thank you for your participation and generosity!

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Pain

/pān/

In 1297 English, the word peyn came from Old French peine, which came from Latin poena meaning "punishment, penalty." In late Latin, it meant to torment, hardship and suffering. Greek πονή (poine) with a general meaning of "price paid, penalty, punishment."

In 1644 Descartes' theory was that pain passed along nerve fibres as a disturbance that reached the brain. Descartes's and Avicenna's work evolved to the Specificity theory saw pain as "a specific sensation, with its sensory apparatus independent of touch and other senses." By the end of the 1800s, pain specificity was presented as fact.

Pain is an adaptive response that naturally protects our body from actual or potential injury. It is thought to be a signal from your nervous system that something is wrong. It is an unpleasant subjective sensation that may be constant, intermittent, sharp or dull, aches, tingling, burning, or stinging. It causes physical suffering or discomfort caused by illness or injury. There are differing opinions on whether pain is an emotion that results in mental suffering or distress. Pain is experienced differently by people.

TF336: Ecumenical Log Drivers with Bishop Bruce Myers OGS - Part 2

After overcoming some technical difficulties, we are pleased to offer part 2 of a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity lecture series offered through the sponsorship of St. Thomas More College, the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism, the Archdiocese of Regina, and Champion College featuring Bishop

Bruce Myers at Champion College in Regina.

Drawing on decades of reflection on ecumenical reception and formation, Bishop Myers presents an approach to teaching the practical and theological aspects of ecumenism in a way that is both holistic and pragmatic and offers the potential to raise up a new generation of church leaders who are also agents of reconciliation and Christian unity.

Since then, 591 people have been commissioned through the program, but, unfortunately, we do not have contact information for everybody.

If you are interested in being part of the Lay Formation Alumni, send your contact information to Aseret Ruiz at:

LESSON TWELVE

If the Catechism presents Catholic doctrine in a organized way, is the context of that doctrine ignored? Example: God's relationship with his people.

God's "covenant" is evident throughout the Catechism and interwoven to provide a unified whole. While the content of some European catechisms are organized according to the "covenant," the text of the Catechism normally used in Canada makes regular references to God's relationship with his people.

Who is God? Qui est Dieu?

3 Minute Catechism Video: archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Read the Catechism Text: CCC#'s 198, 212, 293 & 314

Sacred Scripture: Romans 11.33 & 34, Micah 4.12, Proverbs 3.5, Mark 12.24, 1 Cor 2.14.

There is a teaching that it is not possible, on earth, for the human intellect to comprehend God in His fullness, but possibly seen at the Beatific Vision (visio beatifica).

St. Augustine: Sermon 67, #5: "Si comprehendus, non est Deus", or: if you comprehend it, then it's not God. The moment we think to understand God's plan in our life, is the moment we are wrong. God simply "IS" and beyond all understanding.

St. Thomas Aquinas: Summa Theologiae tackles "all things God" by providing theories of God's nature, such as: proof, existence and attributes of God. without defining "who God is".
