"It is written: 'The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.'" Matthew 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things, and develop and nurture heavenly things. Lent is time to repent and let go of the other "gods" we have put before God.

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Fear

/fir/

The Greek root, Phobos, means 'fear.' Fear is an unpleasant emotion caused by the belief that someone or something is dangerous, likely to cause pain or a threat. Fear starts in the part of the brain called the amygdala. According to Smithsonian Magazine, "A threat stimulus, such as the sight of a predator, triggers a fear response in the amygdala, which activates areas involved in preparation for motor functions involved in fight or flight. Preserved throughout evolution, the fear response allows survival by engendering appropriate behavioural responses. Fear is closely related to the emotion anxiety, which occurs as the result of threats perceived as uncontrollable or unavoidable. Research in some areas suggests that social relations and culture may also shape and guild the understanding of when and how much fear to feel and are not just based solely on individuals' nature.

All are welcome to join this free 1-hour online webinar offered in the spirit of the LAURC Covenant by the Ecumenical Stewardship Committee of the Anglican Diocese of Qu'Appelle, the Saskatchewan Synod of the ELCIC, and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina.

LESSON THIRTEEN

FAQ: Is the authority of the Catechism the same as dogmas declared by a pope or ecumenical council?

A catechism provides a complete summary of the fundamental truths that are already defined; and as such, it contains the infallible doctrines defined by popes and ecumenical councils. However, it also contains teachings that cannot be disregarded, yet remains centred in Christ and demonstrates the harmony among teachings. In Fidei Depositum, St. John Paul II said, "The Catechism of the Catholic Church...of which I order by virtue of my Apostolic Authority, is a statement of the Church's faith and of catholic doctrine, attested to or illumined by Sacred Scripture, the Apostolic Tradition, and the Church's Magisterium."

Sacred Scripture: Jeremiah 32.7, Psalm 33.9, Job 42.2, Matt 19.26

Pope Francis: "God's power saves us from weakness and sins. The Kingdom of God takes its power from the strength of Christ's love."

St. Mary MacKillop: "Let us ever hope that you look for strength from God who alone can give it." To learn more about her go to: catholic.org/saints/saint.php?saint\_id=4958

Pope Leo XIII: describes God's power in his encyclical named Immortale Dei, saying: "the Almighty has so combined the forces...of nature (in) harmony...and all of them most fitly and aptly work together for the great purpose of the universe."
