Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

“Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, ‘Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.’” Mark 1:35, 38

In today’s Gospel reading we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes - healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus takes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we are given the graces needed to do what He wishes us to do. Praying before acting is a great habit to develop.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Liturgically, we now see green, and we tell the children, "Green is for growing time." The children here have a growing relationship with Jesus. They want to know "Who is God?" The people of Israel wanted to know "Who are you, Jesus?". Both questions He answers in this one parable. Jn 10:3b-16 "[The Good Shepherd] calls his own sheep by name [...] I came that they might have life [...] I lay down my life for the sheep. [...] I am the Good Shepherd..." The child who hears this may know already or she may wonder for a period of time who these happy sheep might be. But once that point is reached of independently realizing who exactly it is that the Good Shepherd knows and loves in such a way, it is then that without a doubt the wonder only increases! Wonder with us! For more information visit <https://www.cgsac.ca/>
