Show favor, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace, that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity, they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Mark 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, and spend some "alone" time with God

AN APPEAL: the CWL has been managing our church's catering for receptions after funerals and special events for years. This is a service that is much appreciated by the community, and the income goes towards charitable requests and to special necessities in the parish. Receptions after funerals are particularly important as a comfort for mourning families. The problem is that only a handful of CWL members are left, and they need help! This appeal is for volunteers to make up a team who can help with the catering. If we have enough people (men and women!) on the list, individuals may not be called to work more than once or twice a year. The work is quite simple (no cooking!), and the camaraderie in the kitchen is a bonus! If you need more information or are willing to sign up, please get in touch with Shannon Chapple (306-541-9978/rchapple@myaccess.ca) or Margaret Molloy (306-352-2908/margaret.molloy@sasktel.net). You may also leave your name in the parish office (306-565-0909). Thank you.

WOMEN'S PEER SUPPORT GROUP MEETING will be on Tuesday, July 23rd at 7:00 pm in the O'Neill Room.

July 2024

Dear parishioners and visitors,

We cannot safely say that summer is finally here, but there are lovely colours in flowerbeds, lush greens on the trees, activities in the parks.....

June was a busy month at the cathedral: a full house on June 1 for the Regina Symphony Orchestra's "Brahms Requiem" concert, the ordination into the priesthood of Daniel Malone on the 7th, and the ordination into the Permanent Diaconate of Martin Kondzielewski and Ken Fahlman on the 14th. The first event saw a large number of RSO patrons who had never been to the cathedral, and they were full of admiration not only for the concert but also for our church. Fr. Malone's ordination ceremony was a most touching event, enhanced by beautiful music from our choir, which was enlarged by his friends. And undoubtedly, the new Deacons are a welcome addition to the diocesan educational and liturgical services.

It was not a surprise that the renovations in the building were not completed at the end of the month, as we know too well the pressures on construction companies. We have been assured that the end is near, and the results will be to our satisfaction. We hope to have a celebration sometime at the end of summer to mark the completion of the first phase of badly needed work on the building. This project is not just for the benefit of our parish but of the whole archdiocese; the maintenance and preservation of this century-year-old building is both a historical necessity and a religious one. It is not only a lovely structure but part of the city's heritage and the mother-church of our community of faith. What we put into its preservation today will ensure its continuing use in the next hundred years.

Evanne, our Director of Music, is taking a sabbatical leave from the beginning of August this year until the end of June 2025. She hopes to complete her studies towards an M.A. in Music from the University of Saskatoon. Filling the position is Jessica Stroeder, who completed her organ scholarship last month. She has been part of the cathedral's organist rota for the past two years and has substituted for Evanne in conducting the choir a few times. She has completed a Bachelor of Music course of studies, had choral conducting classes, and has a semester of practice-teaching left toward a Bachelor of Education degree.

Our parish is truly blessed by the musicians who enhance our liturgies and special ceremonies and who work on preserving the tradition of centuries-old church music alongside keeping up with the new.

And it cannot be said enough: another blessing is the strong spirit of volunteering in our parish! On May 25, several volunteers turned out for the Downtown Saturday lunch, which we hosted at First Baptist Church. The call for donations, monetary as well as necessary items, elicited extraordinary generosity from parishioners. Thanks to Bernadette for always keeping us mindful of the needs of others and for making the meaning of social justice concrete.

And finally, an appeal: the CWL has been managing our church's catering for receptions after funerals and special events for years. This is a service that is much appreciated by the community, and the income goes towards charitable requests and to special necessities in the parish. Receptions after funerals are particularly important as a comfort for mourning families. The problem is that only a handful of CWL members are left, and they need help! This appeal is for volunteers to make up a team who can help with the catering. If we have enough people (men and women!) on the list, individuals may not be called to work more than once or twice a year. You may also leave your name in the parish office (306-565-0909). Thank you.

Please take note that the parish office hours in July and August are from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm.

All of us on the Pastoral and Finance Councils wish you a restful, safe, pleasurable summer.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Dan Rafael, Rector

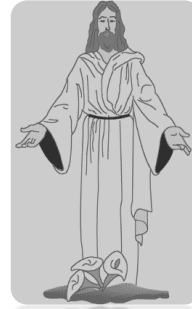

Samy McCarthy, Chair, Pastoral Council
