God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." John 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

WHAT IS NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY (NIPD)?

June 21 is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is a day for all Canadians to recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures, and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples. The Canadian Constitution recognizes these three groups as Aboriginal peoples, also known as Indigenous peoples. Although these groups share many similarities; they each have their own distinct heritage, language, cultural practices, and spiritual beliefs. In cooperation with Indigenous organizations, the Government of Canada chose June 21, the summer solstice, for National Aboriginal Day, now known as National Indigenous Peoples Day. For generations, many Indigenous peoples and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on or near this day due to the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year. Please check with your local community to see if there are events you can join on June 21st.

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Nightmare (n.) nahyt-mair nart.mer

The word nightmare is defined as a terrifying dream in which the dreamer experiences feelings of helplessness, extreme anxiety, sorrow, etc. It is derived from the Old English c. 1300, "an evil female spirit afflicting men (or horses) in their sleep with a feeling of suffocation," compounded from night + mare. In mid-16c. from the incubus to the suffocating sensation it causes. Sense of "any bad dream" is recorded by 1829; that of a "very distressing experience." The word nightmare is cognate with the Dutch term nachtmerrie and German Nachtmahr.

TF# 351: Talking to Your Kids About Sex - Part 2

Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett get together this week to discuss one of life's trickiest topics; talking to our kids about sex. When do you start? How do you broach the subject? What do you say? It could be an example to follow, or a cautionary tale but its sure to be interesting!

Show Snippet: "If you talk about how cigarette companies are trying to get you hooked early and exploit you and make money off of you, kids are like, "Hell no." And so something similar with porn, too; the performers are being exploited, but so are you. There are people on the internet who are trying to catch you early and make you a customer for life to serve their ends and make you a slave."

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... Pheasant Rump First Nation is a Nakota band with approximately 60 members (per the 2016 Census) in the Moose Mountain area near Kisbey. In 1901, Canada stopped recognizing Pheasant Rump as a First Nation after Canada wrongfully amalgamated Ocean Man, Pheasant Rump, and White Bear First Nations. In February 2022, Pheasant Rump was officially recognized as a Treaty 4 First Nation confirming that it has existed since 1875. In 2021, the Nation held an event recognizing Canada's first sasktoday.ca/south/local-news/pheasant-rump-nakota-first-nation-marks-truth-and-reconciliation-day-4480350 where all participants were gifted with an orange shirt recognizing the injustices and impacts of Indian Residential Schools.
