Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the author of all that is good. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities." - MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, to use them wisely, and to be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us. God asks us to be generous with all our gifts, especially the one that means the most to you.

"I wonder how many churches and charitable organizations realize that community is one of the greatest gifts they have to offer. If we ask for money, it means that we offer a new fellowship, a new brotherhood, a new sisterhood, a new way of belonging.

We have something to offer- friendship, prayer, peace, love, fidelity, affection, ministry with those in need- and these things are so valuable that people are willing to make their resources available to sustain them." - Henri Nouwen, A Spirituality of Fundraising

Our Parish Goal is $52,148. To date, HRC Parish has raised $10,823.90 or 20.76%.

BULLETIN REFLECTION

1st Reading: Prv 31.10-13, 19-20, 30-31 | 2nd Reading: 1 Thes 5.1-6 | Gospel: Mt 25.14-30

Today is World Day for the Poor. The readings fit into this day quite well. The Gospel parable about the talents shows us that we are the stewards of the world until Jesus returns, and how we manage our resources will be judged upon his return. So that puts the responsibility on us to be good stewards, not only of our wealth but of our world. So, it becomes critical to help those around us with the resources that we have. Often, we fail to understand the conditions and events that lead many into homelessness or poverty, especially if we have not experienced these things in our own lives. Your contribution to the Archbishop's Appeal helps organizations such as the Marian Center, which helps feed and clothe those who are struggling to afford the basic necessities of life. With your contribution, their work becomes easier to do. Please continue to support the Archbishop's Appeal so that we can ensure that the work of the Church can continue to lead others to experience the generosity and love of Christ.

THE CONQUEST BOYS "In the Spirit of Saint Nicholas" project will once again be promoting sainthood and raising money for those in need through the sale of Purdy's Chocolates. The proceeds will be directed to the Canadian Centre for Bio-Ethical Reform (CCBR), Canada's educational human rights organization dedicated to making abortion unthinkable in Canada. All orders will be placed online.

All orders must be placed before Nov. 26 to be delivered before Christmas. Please put your delivery address and phone number in the "additional information" section upon ordering so we can arrange to drop off your order. Chocolates will be dropped off on or before Dec. 12.

PEACE ON EARTH – ADVENT SCRIPTURE WEBINAR WITH FR. SCOTT LEWIS SJ

Campion College Campus Ministry will offer a short Advent reflection series online with Fr. Scott Lewis SJ. The dates are Tuesdays, November 28, December 5 & 12, 2023, from 10:00 - 10:40 am. Fr. Scott will lead a reflection for 30 minutes, followed by a brief Ignatian Conversation or an Ignatian prayer tool (if our numbers are too high).

sent out to all registered participants. The reflections will be recorded and made available to registered participants.

TF374: Mental Health in the Bible Learning From Leah, Hannah, Jeremiah, and Naomi

Deacon Eric examines four more biblical figures as models for navigating mental health challenges. He discusses Leah, Hannah, Jeremiah, and Naomi and how their experiences can provide guidance and support for our own challenges today.

Show Snippet: "Naomi's story underscores the importance of social support and of opening ourselves to being a support for others. In spite of her grieving, she recognizes God's hand in sending the right people into her life at the right time and encourages her daughter-in-law, Ruth to do the same..." ### LESSON THIRTY-TWO

How did Jesus save us on the cross?

Watch Videos: archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Catechism Text: CCC nos. 599 & 613.

Sacred Scripture: Matt 1.21 & 9.13, Romans 5.7-11 & 8.23-24

St. Pope John Paul II: "The power of Christ's cross and resurrection is great than any evil in which man could or should fear" (The Threshold of Hope 219).

Fleming Rutledge (Theologian). From his book: The Crucifixion. "No other mode of execution would have been commensurate with the extremity of humanity's condition under sin".

FAQ: How can the Catechism be most effectively used by priests?

It is an invaluable pastoral resource and offers the Church's teachings in a positive, expository manner, avoiding argumentation or apologetics. It lends itself to be used in teaching, counseling and homilies. Especially helpful for faith questions concerning doctrine, it is a user-friendly resource with cross-referencing, indices and doctrinal issues are suggested in the liturgical cycle of readings. This provides background for the priest to address directly in his homilies. Seminarians can also benefit and, they, too, should read and study it.

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... Wood Mountain Lakota First Nation is located south-west of Moose Jaw and has approximately 305 members with most members living off reserve. The First Nation was not a signatory to any treaty. After Chief Sitting Bull's victory at the Battle of Little Bighorn, a number of Lakota relocated with Sitting Bull to what is now Canada to avoid reprisals by the US Cavalry. The First Nation was recognized through an Order-in-Council on August 5, 1930. In August, 2022, the Nation signed a historic Framework Agreement (canada.ca/en/crown-indigenous-relations-northern-affairs/news/2022/08/wood-mountain-lakota-first-nation-and-canada-sign-framework-to-advance-reconciliation-and-build-a-renewed-relationship.html) to guide Canada and the First Nation in renewing their nation-to-nation relationship. Chief LeCaine stated the agreement is a small step towards true recognition that they had traditional lands in Treaty 4 territory.
