“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” (Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it’s more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

Archbishop Appeal 2021

On this fifth week of our Archbishop’s Appeal, all the readings inspire us to love God, and loving God involves loving others. Our donations help bring God’s unbinding love to others by supporting multiple programs such as visiting the sick, spiritual care, social justice, and walking with victims and survivors.

Our Parish Goal is $55,119. To date, HRC Parish has raised $17,380 or 31.53%. TRC Healing Response Campaign $2,455.

Oktoberfest Fundraiser

Once again, the team led by Tim and Krista LaBelle has managed a successful, though different, Oktoberfest event. They sold 259 tickets for drive-thru dinners, catered by Charlotte’s Catering. On Friday evening, 29th October, the HRC parking lot was the scene of numerous cars driving through to pick up German-cuisine-inspired dinners. The parish is most grateful to all who worked on the team for this successful fundraiser for Cathedral maintenance. Also, thanks to Bernadette Kutarna, who managed the 50/50 lottery, half of the proceeds will go towards her fundraising project to bring an immigrant family to Regina.

Refugee Sponsorship

Sarcan Drop and Go. We will pick up Sarcan recyclables. Just call/text Bernadette or if you wish to drop them off yourself, the keyword is 'kind welcome'. Thank you!

Call Bernadette at (306) 525-0049, landline or (306) 537-4158, mobile.

100% of your donation for this service will go to our refugee sponsorship! Thank you!

Community Fridge

Feed the hungry- this work of mercy is easy to do by supporting the Cathedral Community Fridge in our own parking lot. If we each contribute one item weekly when we come to mass, this simple act could help meet the needs of the community.

There will be a bin at the back of the church entrance for you to leave donations in, or you can take them directly to the fridge. Thank you!

Archbishop's Appeal

The blind man showed not only that he had great faith in the ability of Jesus to give him sight but it also showed his willingness to persevere even when others told him to be quiet. God calls us to trust in Him in all things. He calls us to be vocal about our faith even when others want to silence us. The great faith the blind man showed resulted in a great reward. He got his sight. It did not end there because he showed his gratitude by following Jesus. We often forget to do that. We need to express our gratitude to God for all he does for us whether it be small things or big things.

The Archbishop's Appeal provides support to a wide variety of community outreach programs such as Catholic Family Services, Native Ministry and Visitation House to name a few. These programs assist people in the community who need a variety of supports. By providing them help we can live what Jesus taught us about helping each other. Your support for the Appeal means the Archdiocese can continue to run the programs and make life a little better for our brothers and sisters.

BULLETIN BOARD

TF268: Vaccine Mandates and Exemptions with Melissa Moschella - Part 1

This week Dr. Brett Salkeld sits down with Dr. Melissa Moschella, moral philosopher at the Catholic University of America for a three-part series discussing vaccine mandates and exemptions from a Catholic perspective.

Show Snippet: "It doesn't really make sense for an authority of the Catholic Church to be able to sign off on an exemption that says 'the Catholic Church forbids me to do X...when, in fact, the Catholic Church does not forbid you.'" <https://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/vaccine-mandates-and-exemptions-with-melissa-moschella-part-1>

Exploring our Sacred Texts: A conversation about stewarding our common life

All are invited to join this online series with Jewish, Christian, and Muslim panelists to discuss the scriptural sources for understanding generosity, hospitality, and compassion. Thursdays, October 28, and November 4 at 3:00 PM.

Oct. 28 - Hospitality

Nov. 4 - Compassion

•Rabbi Jeremy Parnes is the spiritual leader of Beth Jacob Synagogue in Regina. His long involvement in multifaith and community organizations includes Regina Multifaith Forum, Habitat for Humanity, numerous City of Regina committees on social housing and homelessness, and several inner-city boards, including Youth Connexions and The Boys and Girls Clubs of Canada.

•Rev. Amanda Currie has been minister of First Presbyterian Church in Regina since 2017. She previously ministered in Saskatoon for 14 years and has recently completed a two-year term as Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. She is vice president of the Canadian Council of Churches, where she has served on the Governing Board for the past 7 years. She has convened the Ecumenical & Interfaith Committee of the Presbyterian Church and is active in numerous national and local ecumenical and interfaith initiatives.

•Imam Dr. Mohamed Masloh is the leader of the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan in Regina, an RCMP chaplain, and a teaching assistant at the University of Regina. He studied at the prestigious Al-Azhar University in Cairo and the Graduate Theological Foundation in Indiana, where he earned a Ph.D. in Islamic Studies. In these days of increased social polarization and intolerance, where racism, antisemitism, and Islamophobia appear to be increasing daily, dialogue between faith communities is an antidote to ignorance and hatred. Generosity, hospitality, and compassion are social virtues that can heal the wounds of our society. Register in advance for this series: <https://bit.ly/3iwypfm> For further information, contact Archdeacon Cheryl Toth at stewardship@sasktel.net This webinar is planned in the spirit of the LAURC Covenant by the Ecumenical Stewardship Committee of the Anglican Diocese of Qu'Appelle, the Saskatchewan Synod of the ELCIC, and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina.
