"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..."

Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL

With autumn's arrival, we are reminded of the abundance around us and called into a time to reflect on God's faithfulness. This season of harvest and abundance is a beautiful parallel to our upcoming Archbishop's Appeal, which will officially kick off in parishes next week. The Archbishop's Appeal is a chance to align ourselves with the changing seasons and God's generous heart. In the coming weeks, we encourage you to consider donating to the Appeal to support your community. Thank you for your generosity.

Bulletin Reflection

1st Reading: Ez 18.25-28 | 2nd Reading: Phil 2.1-11 or Phil 2.1-5 | Gospel: Mt 21.28-32

Jesus had a consistent way of life where he helped others, particularly those society would deem unlovable.

The Gospel today tells us how important it is to not only listen to the Good News that Christ brings us but also to have our hearts and minds transformed. As the first reading tells us, Jesus entered into our humanity, not to become a great military or religious leader but rather to show us the face of God the Father. When we learn to hear God's call, living a life consistent with that calling becomes easier. In your support of the Archbishop's Appeal, we can help bring the Gospel to everyone, especially those on the margins of society who struggle to feel loved or accepted by the Church.

MARK YOU CALENDAR! SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15

The Holy Rosary Knights will be serving a delicious breakfast after the 9 and 11 am Masses. Adults $10/person and Children 12 and under $5. Look forward to seeing you there!

TOGETHER – GATHERING OF THE PEOPLE OF GOD

Sunday, October 1 at 3:00 pm at Blessed Sacrament Parish. An ecumenical prayer service will be held in Regina in spiritual communion with Christians around the world and with the Together 2023 ecumenical prayer vigil in Rome with the leaders of different Churches, to unite us in praise and silence, in listening to the Word.

HOLY ROSARY CATHEDRAL SOCIAL JUSTICE

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee. Did you know... White Bear First Nation (whitebearfirstnation.ca) is located 13 kms North of Carlyle, Sask. in the scenic Moose Mountain area and consists of four First Nations (Cree, Saulteaux, Nakota, and Dakota). Chief Wahpemakwa signed an adhesion to Treaty 4 in 1875. The population is approximately 2900 members with 70% who live off reserve. The Bear Claw Casino opened in 1993 and was shut down because of a contentious battle with the provincial government regarding gaming in Saskatchewan. The federal government was also involved which led to a major change in the Indian Act of 1876. The Permit System was rescinded - a historic win for First Nations across Canada. Prior to 1996, First Nations had to get permission from the federal government to establish a business on their land. The Bear Claw Casino reopened in 1996.

TF368: Truth and Reconciliation with Fr. Cristino Bouvette

This week Dr. Brett welcomes Father Cristino Bouvette from the Diocese of Calgary for a conversation about truth and reconciliation and the intersection of personal experiences with public expectations. Father Cristino shares his unique journey as an Indigenous Catholic priest and the complex blend of heritage that shapes his perspective. Join them as they explore the challenges and insights that come with navigating preconceived notions, the residential school legacy, and the power of building bridges between communities. Discover the richness of reconciliation and the potential to transcend labels in the pursuit of genuine understanding. Show Snippet: “She (my kokum) was the Executive Director of the Friendship Centre in Rocky Mountain House, nearby where our farm was. She spent most of her adult life, after raising children, working on building stronger relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in one small community in rural Alberta, and to me, that’s reconciliation. And that’s what I grew up with.” thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/truth-and-reconciliation-with-fr-cristino-bouvette

LESSON THIRTY

How did Jesus live?

Watch Videos: archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes

Catechism Text: CCC nos. 531-535

Sacred Scripture: John 21.25

Antonio Cardinal Bacci: It is an amazing thought, that Jesus, the eternal wisdom of the Father, should have chosen to live quietly for thirty years...Why? (Because) It was humility they needed to hear. Let us learn... humility and silence from the hidden life of Jesus. FAQ: How does the Catechism strengthen the Church’s bond of unity? St. Pope John Paul II said that the Catechism provides “the service of supporting and confirming the faith (and) to strengthen the bonds of unity in the same apostolic faith.” The Catechism, then, is intended to “carefully guard the unity of the faith and fidelity to Catholic doctrine.” The Catechism seeks to foster the unity of the faith as it is lived distinctively throughout the universal Church worldwide. The Catechism has a great potential to diminish division within the Church and draw believers closer to Christ and one another.
