"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." Mark 10:25

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. However, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Parish Office will be closed on Monday, October 14 for Thanksgiving Day!

CWL wants to remind you to think of volunteering for the catering service we provide in our parish. We welcome men and women to help us in catering for funerals and archdiocesan events. If we have a long enough list of volunteers, you may not be called on to help more than once or twice a year. NO cooking experience needed--- just willing hands for setting up, chopping "goodies", and washing up. The bonus is the good time we have in kitchen, and the gratitude expressed by the families we serve. For further information, or to sign up, please call the office (306-565-0909), Margaret Molloy (306-352-2908), Shannon Chapple (306-541-9978), or Samy McCarthy (306-584-0613).

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL

"Embracing Unity: Many People, One Heart."

Bulletin Reflection: Gospel: Mark 10:17-27

The rich young man walks away saddened when Jesus invites him to sell his possessions and follow Him. This passage challenges us to examine what holds us back from fully committing to God's call. By releasing our grip on material wealth, we open our hearts to greater blessings. Our generosity becomes a testament to our faith, helping others find their way to Christ and strengthening the spiritual wealth of our community.

Join “Companions in Hope: A Prayerful Space for Healing and Support

An Online Mental Health Prayer Group
Emmaus Mental Health Ministries warmly invites you to Companions in Hope, an online prayer group for those living with mental health challenges and the allies who accompany them. This is a sacred space of safety, acceptance, and healing, where we come together in prayer and reflection, offering support to one another on our journey toward hope.

Through the practice of Lectio Divina and other traditional contemplative prayers, we will reflect on God’s healing presence and our need for grace, fostering peace, consolation, and connection. Whether you’re seeking comfort in your mental health challenges, or encouragement as you accompany and support loved ones, you will find a quiet, peaceful community of prayer and support. We meet on Zoom every second Thursday of the month. To Register: Please contact emmausmentalhealth@gmail.com to receive the Zoom link and join us in this journey of healing and hope.

Archbishop’s Appeal

Our generosity becomes a testament to our faith, helping others find their way to Christ and strengthening the spiritual wealth of our community.

Read. Pray. Vote! Saskatchewan Provincial Election

The October election will offer Saskatchewan voters an opportunity to ensure that the province is guided by leaders who will provide practical and efficient leadership with the good of all in mind – including the unborn, the elderly, the young, families, and those who are too often forgotten by society – as well as workers, farmers, business owners, and all future generations.

Catholics are called to participate, in accordance with the full measure of talents entrusted to us by God, each of us in accordance with our own well-formed conscience. At a minimum, this means voting prayerfully and wisely after having considered all relevant issues, the positions of each of the candidates and parties, and relevant Church teachings. Many of us are called to even deeper involvement: volunteering at polling stations and other efforts to get out the vote; engaging personally with candidates and party officials; helping to spread good ideas and encourage others to vote properly; or in some cases volunteering to assist candidates or parties – or even putting ourselves forward as candidates.

To assist you with these efforts, you can visit the Catholic Conscience Page at: catholicconscience.org/Canada/Saskatchewan/2024-provincial-election/
